COMMENT ON STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Mail Stop Issue Fee

Commissioner for Patents

P. O. Box 1450

Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

Applicant has the following brief comment concerning the Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance.

REMARKS

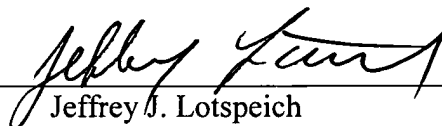

The Notice of Allowability indicated that the reasons for allowance have been provided in paragraph 5 of the last Office Action, mailed on September 21, 2005. With regard to such comments, Applicant submits that there are both method and apparatus claims in this application. To the extent that the Examiner's Statement might be construed as implying that the apparatus could only be practiced using a method with the characteristics set forth in the Statement, Applicant would respectfully disagree. Each claim stands on its own; attributes of apparatus claims should not be imputed to method claims, and vice versa. Applicant further notes that the Examiner's Statement presents the claimed invention in terms which are neither reproduced, verbatim, from the claims, nor consistent with the language cited in the claims. Applicant respectfully submits that the claims are patentable for, and should be construed in accordance with, their respective recitation. To the extent that the language employed in the Examiner's Statement is not a direct quotation from the claims, Applicant submits that the Statement should not be construed in any limiting sense with respect to the scope of the terms used in the claims themselves.

Respectfully submitted,

Lee, Hong, Degerman, Kang & Schmadeka
